BFI lawsuit slows down waste plan

By STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

The Wayne County Solid Waste Management plan was expected to have the approval of the 29 communities (representing two-thirds of those involved) needed to pass by Tuesday evening, according to Wayne County Commissioner Milt Mack, but there may be a proverbial wrench in the machinery. BFI Industries has filed suit for a restraining order on the plan.

The plan will limit the number of future landfills and designates where they can go. Should the plan fail, the Department of Natural Resources (DNR) would take over complete control, a move Mack and fellow Solid Waste Management Committee member Jim Kosteva say would be "disasterous."

Prior to the plan gaining final approval by the board, it was amended to remove the controversial "Airport" landfill, which was to be built by BFI Industries in Huron Township near Metro Airport. The Airline Pilots Association, among other groups, claimed that the site would create a hazard because of the birds that would be drawn to the proposed landfill. One bird strike can - and has, in other states - bring down an airplane, perhaps killing many or all on board.

BFI has, in the opinions of Mack and Kosteva, little chance at succeeding. "I would be very surprised if the court would go against the action taken by what will be well over 30 communities," said Mack.

"They'll try and get an injunction," said Mack, with Kosteva adding that BFI "is just playing the last cards in their hand."

Should the court go in favor of BFI, Mack contends that the resulting delay could adversely affect the proposed $400 million Detroit incineration plant, which would take care of approximately 50 percent of Wayne County's waste.

"Detroit would fund it through bonds," said Mack, "but it'll have to be done before the first of the year, thanks to Reagan's misdirected tax plans that will continue to hurt the middle and lower classes while boosting the rich. Being tied up in court could make that plan impossible, considering the economy."

Kosteva added that "any delays will jeopardize projects aimed at looking at and utilizing alternative waste removal, such as incineration."

The case will be heard by Judge Robert Columbo Jr. this Friday.

Shown here with just a portion of their trophies and awards are (from left) Rachael, 7; Renee, 12; and Rhonda, 9. No doubt, many more will follow, as it's obvious these youngsters have bright futures ahead.

Winning ways Dent sisters star on runway

By STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

If the Dent girls keep on winning trophies the way they have been, Huron Township may be forced to expand its boundaries just to make room for their awards.

Sidney Dent, the proud father of the girls, says that the youngsters' feats continuously amaze him.

"I'm so proud of them," he said, "but then, what father wouldn't be?"

The girls, Rachael, 7; Rhonda, 9; and Renee, 12, won their first awards twirling batons.

"Then," says Dent, "they each in turn got into modeling dresses at competition shows, as well as modeling fancy baton outfits."

Then, they began to model sportswear and ended up doing "extremely" well at a modeling show last month at Westland Center.

"There has been so much love shown to them by friends and relatives," Dent said, "many have contributed money so the girls could go to national competitions and such."

In August, a national competition was held in Benton Harbor, where Rachael took many first-place trophies, including best appearance, fancy, strut and solo twirl. Renee also brought home a few winning awards and Rhonda won or placed in all the events she entered.

According to Dent, this has opened many new doors for the girls, and all three have been accepted by modeling agencies in Detroit, Pontiac and Southfield.

While the records of all the girls are outstanding, perhaps the most impressive is 7-year-old Rachael, who has won titles as Talent Star 1984, Majorette Model of the Year 1984, Beginning Queen of Baton, Miss Spring Beauty and Michigan Mini-Majorette Beauty.

"We may have to get another house, just to keep the trophies in," joked Dent, "but I'm so proud, I wouldn't even mind."

Police probe 2 weekend robberies

Two unrelated incidents of armed robbery took place in Romulus within a five-hour span last weekend.

At 9:40 p.m. Saturday, a man approached a woman in a phone booth, which stands in front of 8498 Wayne.

Reportedly, he first told her to get off the phone, that he wanted to use the phone. She continued to talk and he allegedly began pushing her around the booth, then grasped onto her purse and attempted to wrestle it from her.

According to police, he took out a gun and told the woman to "let go or I'll blow you away." Seemingly unintimidated, she continued to fight for her purse, which happened to contain a large amount of cash.

As the gunman got the purse away from her, an employee of a nearby store reportedly ran to intercede, but the thief took off running, stopping only to take a shot at the man who came to the rescue. The bullet hit a van parked in the lot.

The gunman was described as a black male in his late 20's, five-foot eight with a long, bushy afro.

Later in the evening, at 2:05 a.m., two men walked into Quik Pik party store on Wayne Road and announced a holdup.

It is possible that only one of the men had a gun; a blue-steel revolver that was aimed at the cashier. The gunman's demands were complied with, and the two men took off on foot, heading north.

The men were described as black males, one six feet tall, 190 pounds with a medium complexion. The second man was approximately five-eight, medium complexioned with short hair.

Anyone with any information should contact the Romulus Police Department.

Hopped in for a visit?

First, there were the UFO (Unidentified Flying Objects) sightings, hitting front pages all across the country. Then, there was the Loch Ness monster and his cousin, Bigfoot. Lately, sightings of a black panther have been making the news. And now, last but not least, Romulus has its own strange reported sighting: a two-foot tall kangaroo seen around Merriman Road near the airport.

First reported on Saturday, a woman who swore she had not been drinking told police she had seen the animal hopping down the I-94 freeway.

The second sighting, on Sunday, came from a member of the Wayne County sheriff's office. A third report came through on Monday.

A spokesperson for the Metro Airport division of the sheriff's office said "The kangaroo has not been found, but sheriffs were out looking for it last (Monday) night."

David Wills, Executive Director of the Michigan Humane Society, seemed skeptical about the sightings, but said if asked, they would have their trained crews out their looking.

"If it's only two-foot tall, chances are it isn't a kangaroo, but a wallero or wallaby, which are genetically related to kangaroos," said Wills. According to Wills, if it is a wallaby or wallero, chances are it can survive on its own for sometime "until the bitter cold hits." However, if it is indeed a kangaroo, chances for its survival grow slimmer the longer it is running free.

"One thing," said Wills, "I'd like to make people aware that these animals are harmless, they won't bite. If it is captured, please call the Humane Society, because we can find an excellent home for it."

As of Tuesday, no one had reported a missing kangaroo.

Former city clerk arrested on bad check charges

by STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

Leonard Folmar, former Romulus city clerk, has been arrested and charged with three counts of passing bad checks in Kern County, California, where he works as county election supervisor. He plead innocent when arraigned.

Folmar also was arrested in Romulus for passing bad checks, just before his term of office was over in 1981.

"The State Police handled that case, but I remember it," said Romulus Police Chief Donald Flood. "They took it because he was a city official, and also since elections were coming up, we deemed it better to have a third party handle it."

Folmar was born in Romulus and was a resident until his move to California in February 1983, when he was chosen to head Kern County's elections. He was first elected to the city clerk position in Romulus in 1970.

Although Folmar was only charged with three counts of passing bad checks, published reports say that according to bank records, 42 "dishonored" checks were passed, some as long as three months after his accounts were closed.

Folmar, 43, is currently out on bail. Bond had been set at $1,500.

Currently suspended without pay from his $30,000-a-year job, Folmar was not available for comment.

It is unknown what will happen on Oct. 5, which will mark the end of the 30-day suspension period. According to Kern County law, one can only be suspended for a maximum of 30 days.

One court date has already been postponed because Folmar reportedly showed up without an attorney.

In 1981, Folmar was accused of "paying off" a debt run up with bad checks to a Romulus pharmacy by giving them a $250 fireworks license. No ruling was ever made in the case and Folmar left before the matter could be resolved.

According to Charles Marr of the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office, since the case is still technically open, "if he were in the state of Michigan, we'd go after him." However, Marr claims that budget restraints restrict the extradition of Folmar.

Kern County Personnel Director Joseph Drew, who had a hand in hiring Folmar, claims that he had not been informed of his past history or the circumstances under which he left Michigan.

His pre-trial examination, which was scheduled for last Friday, has been delayed until next month.

The Applefest is coming...

Named for the beautiful river that flows through her boundaries and for the Indian tribe that once inhabited her land, the Township of Huron was established as an original township in 1927. Located in the South Central section of the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, Huron Township's boundaries embrace the three small communities of Waltz, Willow, and New Boston.

October is Applefest Time in Huron Township. Established in 1980, The Huron Township Applefest is a celebration of goodwill at harvest time for all township residents. Visitors come from miles around to share the celebration.

The Huron Township Applefest will celebrate its fifth birthday this year.

The Huron Applefest drew approximately 100,000 people in 1983.

If you have any questions, call Candi Youtsey at 654-6020 or 753-9200 or write her at Box

28, New Boston, 48164.

A little about the Huron Township Applefest:

Surprise Rhoton gets taste of 'good life'

By STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

For Oscar Rhoton Jr.'s 40th birthday, his wife Michele decided to do something out of the ordinary, something to make that transition from the 30s a little easier.

"I wanted to do something really special for his 40th," said Michele, "so he'd be in a good mood instead of being depressed, which most people would be."

Imagine Oscar's surprise when a limousine pulled up in front of his house, and a beautiful woman, wearing a tuxedo, stepped out from behind the wheel, walked up to him and announced "Mr. Rhoton, I'm Dot, your chauffeur for the day."

"I was shocked!" said Rhoton. "She was a knockout! And the first thing I thought of was 'Oh my god, she's a stripper! My wife hired a stripper! And my main concern then'" Rhoton laughed, "was getting her into the house past the kids and keeping the kids outside!

"When she told me she really was a chauffeur, I wasn't worried anymore, I just sat back and enjoyed the ride."

According to Rhoton, the limo was equipped with champagne, crystal goblets, a television with a video tape deck and a telephone.

"It was probably the classiest thing (hiring the limo) anyone could have done," said Rhoton, adding "it made me feel like I was on top of the world!"

Rhoton is owner of the Romulus "Rent A Wreck" store, located at 10255 Middlebelt. Contrary to its name, the worldwide company rents anything but wrecks. "We already have our 1985 cars in," Rhoton said.

Just returning from a convention at Hilton Head, N.C., Rhoton received two awards from the company, one for best growth in the system, and another for best grand opening. The store's first anniversary is coming up Oct. 1.

Rhoton says that his wife had better beware come her next birthday, "because I'm definitely going to get even with her. I'm not sure how yet, but I will."

Laughing, Rhoton said that he had considered getting male strippers, "but who needs the competition?" he added.

According to Rhoton, the only bad thing about the whole thing "is that I can't lie about my age anymore, because now, everybody knows!"

The cake told the story for Oscar Rhoton Jr. "You're not getting older, you're getting better." That was the truth for the Romulus businessman who was treated to a chauffeured limousine ride to work on his 40th birthday. Sharing cake with Rhoton were his parents, Oscar Sr. and Lottie.

Homecoming

Romulus High School will be having its annual Homecoming on Friday, Oct. 12. Plenty of plans are already underway, particularly student float building for the parade.

In addition to the parade, festivities will include "spirit week," the crowning of the Homecoming King and Queen, the big Homecoming dance — which brings alumni together — and, of course, the football game against Taylor Truman.

The parade will begin at 5:30 p.m. at city hall and will proceed through town. The dance will be held at 8 p.m. the following night, Saturday, Oct. 13.

This year, the student government of Romulus High School is inviting any interested community group or dignitaries to participate in the parade. To register or for more information call 941-2170.

Fair showing

The leading aged Quarter Horse stallion under halter in Michigan did it again for owner

Scott Johnson of Romulus and trainer Jim Miller by winning the Reserve Championship halter class at the 1984 Michigan State Fair Horse Show Aug. 24.

Chicago Te, a five-year-old bay sired by the immortal Te-N-Te out of Majestic Maudie, captured the reserve championship after winning the Four Years Old and Older Stallion halter class.

Chicago Te came to the Michigan State Fair Horse Show fresh from his recent victories at the Ohio State Fair where he was named Grand Champion Halter Stallion during both days of competition.

Next on Chicago Te's list will most likely be the Annual Quarter Horse Congress in Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 15-27. The stallion will then be retired to stud in the spring of 1985.

Linda Carpenter, also a Romulus resident, had two award winning roosters in the rooster crowning contest at the 1984 Michigan State Fair.

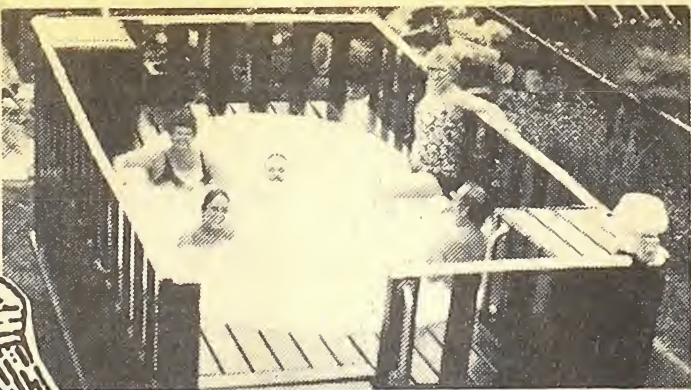

Carpenter, 15, placed first with her plymouth rock partridge in the exhibition roosters division. She also took second place in the bantam rooster division.

Linda's father, George, placed second in the exhibition division.

Winning roosters crowed the most times in a 10 minute period.

Established in 1849, the Michigan State Fair is the country's oldest State Fair and one of the best! The dates of next year's annual State Fair are August 24 through September 3 (Labor Day).

Samsel attends program

Belleville High School junior Tina Samsel has plenty to tell her friends about her summer, after participating in the 43rd session of Girls' State at Central Michigan University in Mt. Pleasant June 9-17.

Samsel was elected for the honor by the Belleville business and Professional Women's Club. A member of the junior class from Belleville High, Samsel was selected based on her academic excellence, participation in the National Junior Honor Society and National Honor Society.

Samsel participates in the Co-Op Program at the high school, attending classes for a portion of the day and then working at C.V.S. at Briarwood Mall, where she is getting on the job training in the business world.

After completing 12th grade this year, Samsel plans to enter college and major in business administration.

The teen had the opportunity to visit Germany, Switzerland and Australia this past spring with 25 other students, all members of a German class at the high school. She has attended Van Buren schools since kindergarten, and continues a close friendship with two classmates, Michelle LaMance and Karen Chudzinski.

In her spare time, Samsel enjoys bowling, arts and crafts and the Rainbow Girls of the Order of the Eastern Star, Belleville.

Samsel is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Roberts and has a brother, Tim, who is serving in the U.S. Navy, and two sisters.

Girls' State was established in 1941 to give 11th grade high school girls a practical experience in the importance of self-government as operated in Michigan and the United States.

Each of the 500 girls attending the session was assigned to a mythical political group at the city or county level. The and elected various city, county and state officials, who learned the functions of those offices, including their power and limitations.

This is the fifth year that Belleville High School has been represented at Girls' State.

Williams graduates

For one Belleville resident, his efforts to improve his job marketability paid off handsomely, when he received his diploma from the Michigan Technical Institute in Ann Arbor.

Curtis Williams was among 249 men and women to make up the graduation class.

THIRTEEN WAYS TO LOSE AN OLD FLAME.

Winter-wise your hard-to-heat rooms or new addition with clean, safe electric heat.

Now there are more than a dozen ways to heat a finished basement, an attic area, or any new addition to your home. And they're all electric. Just dial in the warmth when you need it; shut it off when you don't. Or the unit will shut itself off automatically when it's not needed.

Electric supplemental space heating gives you: ■ Clean, constant heat with no drafts ■ No pilot, no flues, no flames ■ No added ductwork to bother with ■ No added strain on your present central heating system ■ Individual controls for each room ■ A special new supplemental electric space-heating rate for permanently installed equipment.

Call Detroit Edison for full details, or pick up a question-and-answer brochure at any Detroit Edison office. You can also check your Yellow Pages under Electrical Contractors or Lighting Suppliers. Be smart this fall — winter-wise your home with electric heat.

adopt a pet

Change of luck

By ROSE MARY REIZ
ANP Staff Writer

Ginger is a 4½-month-old puppy whose luck may be changing.

Ginger's mother, Misty, was 6½ months old and pregnant when she was thrown from her owner's moving car onto Michigan Avenue this May.

Thanks to local residents Jackie Mroz and Doris Stevens who stopped to help Misty, the frightened stray was safely transferred to the Michigan Humane Society (MHS) Westland Shelter.

Four days later, surrounded by strange animals and unfamiliar sights and sounds, Misty gave birth to a litter of puppies.

The new-born mixed shepherd pups were fostered at the homes of MHS employees until seven weeks of age. They were then placed in the center's adoption program, where all four, including Ginger, found homes.

Two weeks after her adoption, Ginger was returned to the center by her new owners, who complained of the puppy's persistent urinary infection.

Tests performed at the MHS central shelter in Detroit confirmed that Ginger had a serious congenital birth defect which required surgery.

MHS Dr. William Nemeth consulted staff members at Michigan State and Purdue universities before attempting the delicate operation, which involved repositioning the puppy's ureter (the passageway between kidney and bladder) in the bladder wall.

The surgery was determined successful and Ginger was released to spend her recovery period at the home of MHS employees, who once again took turns caring for her.

Now 4½ months old, Ginger has become a familiar sight at MHS shelters, where employees have been trying to find a permanent home for her.

Also concerned about her progress are Mroz and Stevens, the guardian angels who rescued Ginger's mother and later covered the cost of her puppy's medical bills.

The pair are hoping Ginger finds as good a home as her mother has found with, surprisingly, the president of the Michigan Cat Fanciers Association.

"We still keep in touch with Misty's new owner," says Joan Witt, MHS director of operations. "As wary as Misty was at first with people, she loves cats. She is very protective — she sleeps with the cats and tries to carry the kittens around the house. Now we're trying to find as good a home for her puppy."

Witt describes Ginger as very active, smart and headstrong. She loves children and other dogs, the director says, and, like her mother, even likes cats.

MHS employees have also discovered that Ginger has a weak spot for junk food and can distinguish the sound of cellophane being unwrapped from another room.

Completely recovered from her surgery, Ginger requires no special care, although Witt says that new owners may have to watch the puppy for bladder problems.

In spite of constant transitions from one home to another, Ginger is leash-trained and almost completely housebroken.

"Ginger has been through a lot," Witt says. "Her only problem now is finding a good home, preferably with a family who have older children (Ginger may grow to approximately the same size as her 65-pound mother) and other animals."

"She's spent so much time in a cage that it would be good for her to be with a family who will have time to spend running with her, training her and just playing and giving her the attention she needs so badly."

Those interested in adopting Ginger or other pets in need of a permanent home may contact the Michigan Humane Society's Westland Shelter at 721-7300.

Ginger, a 4½ month old puppy, loves children, other animals and junk food. She is waiting for adoption from the Michigan Humane Society's Westland Shelter.

Annual
Navy Night

The Romulus National Junior ROTC was on hand to present the colors at the recent 20th annual Navy Night at Tiger Stadium in Detroit.

Eighty-two young men from the state of Michigan were on hand to be sworn in as members of the U.S. Navy at the Detroit Tiger Company. The company differs from other Naval companies because it is comprised solely of residents from Michigan. That, according to Navy recruiters, has contributed to high morale and outstanding success of previous Tiger companies.

Following the game between the Eastern Division champion Detroit Tigers and the California Angels, the new recruits boarded buses for Great Lakes, Illinois, where they are now taking the recruit training.

Before leaving, the company was presented with two flags — that of the State of Michigan and the Detroit Tiger pennant, both of which will be carried throughout their basic training.

The Romulus NJROTC not only presented the colors for the singing of the national anthem, its drill team put on a manual of arts demonstration during the ceremonial presentation of the flags to the company.

Master of ceremonies for the evening was Chief Petty Officer Becigneul from the Naval Recruiting District for the State of Michigan.

Patti Derbin is one of many MHS employees who has developed a soft spot in her for Ginger, a puppy in need of a home.

How do you view the role of the judiciary in our society?

Citizens within the jurisdiction of the District Court are more likely to have their problems heard and ruled upon by this court than by any other court in the State. Consequently, the judgeship in the 34th District Court is of critical importance to every resident of that area.

This candidate views the judiciary as servants of the people clothed with the power to implement the laws of the State, facilitating a more orderly life in the community. A judge should strive to make equitable decisions following the Statutes of the State of Michigan and case law established by the higher courts. In many instances, the judiciary serves as an arbitrator.

‘Super Sewer’ project mired in bureaucracy

The continuing saga of the “Super Sewer” program offers a study in bureaucratic inefficiency.

This proposed $139 million project is designed to help end sewage spills, flooding and pollution problems in parts of western Wayne County and Oakland County. The concept for such an undertaking originated in the mid 1960s and has remained on the drawing boards.

Apparently the project will stay on the drawing boards a while longer since the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) recently rejected the plan because officials felt that an environmental study for the proposed North Huron-Rouge Valley Waste System was “inadequate.”

Without the go ahead, the project will not receive federal funding of 75 percent, a critical factor in its implementation. After Oct. 1, the federal share of the project will drop to 55 percent with the remaining monies to be paid by the communities involved.

The EPA decision probably has put the price tag out of reach of the cities and townships that need improvements in the sewage system. Communities which have spent thousands of dollars in feasibility and planning studies may have to swallow the debt.

Why? Representatives of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, which compiled the report, seem unaware as to the reasons for the rejection. Wasn’t all the data requested by the EPA supplied? Are the state and federal agencies experiencing a communications lapse? Are politics behind the decision? No one seems to have the answers.

It is estimated that approximately 3,200 new construction jobs will be lost if the EPA does not reverse its decision and approve funding for the project. Nearly every political representative of the western Wayne County area has been asked to intercede in this mess.

The proposed sewer system started out as a 60-mile, $300 million system and has been changed and delayed for nearly two decades.

Van Buren Township Supervisor called the project a “comedy of errors.” We agree. However, the laugh ultimately may be on the taxpayers of western Wayne County.

‘Journey to excellence’

The Tigers clinched the Eastern Division of the American Baseball League, Tom Selleck won an Emmy as Outstanding Lead Actor in a Dramatic Series, Mary Lou Retton gained a special place in our hearts with her recent achievements at the Los Angeles Olympics.

We honor achievement in our society in nearly all fields of endeavor: entertainment, sports, community service. I have long since resigned myself to the reality that in every one of these “contests” there are winners and losers, and that the quest is as important as the achievement.

Unlike the great Vince Lombardi, I do not concur that, “Winning isn’t the most important thing, it is the only thing.” I have become increasingly impatient, however, with those who make no pretense of an endeavor to “search for excellence.” To steal a phrase, “Life is like mountain climbing, you’re either climbing or sliding.”

There is no such thing as maintaining one’s level of expertise through complacency. Last year’s star quarterback still goes out with the rest of the team each fall to sweat and strain with his teammates.

There are so many valid excuses for an inability to achieve — physical handicaps, certifiable mental dysfunctions, language and cultural differences — making it difficult to assimilate our culture, let alone excel.

But, every day I see those with all their faculties intact but who are too afraid to risk failure or too lazy to pay the price of excellence. They blame life, others, bad luck or whatever else might be convenient as a plausible scapegoat for their lack of performance. They fail to learn from their mistakes or from the errors of others, and they continue to repeat the same foolish mistakes over and over.

Oh, they make me angry! Is it that they don’t think they can be number one, therefore they will “take their ball and go home,” or in many cases, never leave home.

The “I don’t know how, I can’t,” excuse infuriates me the most. How do they know they “can’t” if they have never attempted?

The journey to excellence in any field is invariably fraught with failures, pain and sacrifice. But the thrill of victory can be so exquisite — and so can the knowledge that you attempted, that you gave it the best you had in you, even if you finished as an also-ran.

Remember Gabriella Anderson-Schuess in the women’s marathon in the Olympics? . . . in pain and agony, she risked permanent brain damage to finish that race. Why? Why didn’t she give up? Don’t tell me winning is everything. I do not advocate that kind of tortuous discipline in everyday pursuits, but to condone being mentally, I repeat, mentally, “fat, dumb and ugly” is inexcusable.

Our creator gave us life. We live in the greatest country on earth in the most advanced time in the history of mankind. We live in a society where upward mobility is not only acceptable, it is respected. With these “givens,” how can one justify accepting complacency and failure as a way of life?

The journey to excellence is just that. A journey, not a destination. It is not a plateau to be reached and then ignored indefinitely.

There are in life, “lifters” and “leaners.” Lifters should not become “enablers” who encourage those who are inclined to coast through life, blaming their failures on others, expecting and even demanding that others, “take care of me.”

Few, if any, can achieve greatness or excellence, if you will, alone. Working as a unit or a team, family, church, school, club, company, department or whatever unit title might be appropriate is essential to the pursuit of success. For the “member” of such a unit to aid another is part of life.

It’s the coasters, leaners, and those who simply will not attempt the journey to excellence who test my patience beyond endurance.

May they all learn that anything is possible for those who will make the attempt.

As Rev. Bob Schuller says, “Inch by inch, everything’s a cinch.” See you next week.

Schools’ annexation favored

By WILLIAM HARVEY
Special to ANP

(Harvey is the superintendent of schools in the Cherry Hill School District.)

I am pleased to have this opportunity to briefly express my thoughts on the Special Election scheduled on October 4, 1984. As you know, residents will be voting on the proposed merger of the Cherry Hill School District. The ballot proposal includes the annexation of the Inkster and Westland portions of Cherry Hill to the Wayne-Westland Community Schools and the transfer of the Dearborn Heights portion to the Crestwood School District effective Feb. 1, 1985.

The proposed merger plan culminates approximately two (2) years of planning between the three (3) school districts. The plan has been approved by the boards of education and the state superintendent of public instruction. Now the final decision is up to the residents of the Cherry Hill School District.

A continued decline in enrollment and increasing operational costs have made it more difficult each year to maintain a broad comprehensive educational program in Cherry Hill. The District has provided quality programs and services over the years and is seeking to guarantee the same opportunities for our students in the future. The proposed merger is an excellent plan which will not only preserve many of our fine educational programs, but will provide expanded opportunities for our students. Also, the Merger Plan will allow educational services to be delivered in a more efficient and economical manner.

Most of you are aware of the contents of the proposed merger plan. However, let me list the PRIMARY ADVANTAGES of the plan:

- Over 100 additional secondary school classes
- Separate junior high schools
- Access to excellent buildings and facilities
- Transportation provided for students
- Keep the District’s elementary schools open
- Provides for phase out of the secondary school
- Job security for Cherry Hill employees
- State funds for transitional costs
- Reduction of property taxes
- Additional vocational education programs
- Expanded special education programs
- Expanded services for senior citizens
- Additional pre-school and adult programs

Having served your schools for 25 years, I’m convinced that the merger will strengthen the educational offerings for our students. I do not view the merger as dissolving the District, but an opportunity to expand and provide greater stability for this community. We must keep one main thought in mind: What is best for our students, not just for the immediate future but for the years ahead?

We as a school district have an excellent opportunity to make a positive change for the future. It’s time to move forward in a new direction. A direction which will not only benefit our schools but the entire Cherry Hill community. Your support on Election Day will be appreciated by myself, the Board of Education, and most importantly, our students.

Should you have any questions, or need additional information, please call my office at 728-0100. I will be most happy to discuss the proposed merger with you. Thank you.

Parents absent

To the Editor:

I attended the football game at John Glenn High School September 14. There were several thousand boys and girls of high school age in the stadium. I was immediately aware that there were practically no spectators of an older generation.

I feel sure that most of those young people have parents. Where were they? Have they no regard for the activities of their offspring?

Wouldn’t showing a little more interest on the part of their elders boost teenage morale and promote good behavior?

Possibly if drinking beer and booze in the stands were condoned at the games, attendance at same would be more appealing to the senior delinquents.

Challenge: Two local women travel to Hawaii for once-in-a-lifetime opportunity

By ROSE MARY REIZ
ANP Staff Writer

It began as a challenge between three athletes. It evolved into one of the most highly publicized athletic endurance tests of our times.

For Canton residents and friends Margo Kaziak and Robbi Woolard, the 1984 Ironman Triathlon World Championship in Kona, Hawaii is a once-in-a-lifetime chance to prove something — to themselves.

This year a record 8,000 athletes applied for entry in the Oct. 6 championship, which consists of a 2.4-mile open ocean swim followed by a 112-mile bike race and a 26.2-mile marathon.

No one has ever completed the strenuous course in less than nine hours (In 1983 Dave Scott set a new record by finishing the three-event race in 9 hours, 5 minutes and 57 seconds).

Those interested in entering the triathlon have four options. Former triathlon racers with good times are often invited back to compete again. Newcomers may attempt to qualify by traveling to designated races. Athletes from other countries are invited to participate to stimulate international interest. Out of 1,250 competitors, only 300 are chosen from a lottery drawing of mail-in applicants.

Margo Kaziak and Robbi Woolard are two of the lucky few. Upon learning that she had been accepted to compete in the event, Kaziak, 21, moved from her Canton home to San Diego, California, where the climate is more conducive to her training needs.

Kaziak now combines week-night work as a bartender with three to eight hours of daily training for the triathlon. She has also decided to put college work toward an English degree on hold until after the race.

With just two years experience as a serious runner, Kaziak now must juggle training for not one, but three, sports. In an attempt to become what she describes as "triple fit", she alternates endurance training (18-mile runs, 100-mile rides and swims in the ocean or bay) with shorter workouts to build speed.

"Biking is the hardest part right now," she says, but work with coach David Armola is helping.

Why devote so much time and effort to participate in an event that lasts less than a day?

"On the surface, the goal is just to finish the race," Kaziak reflects. "I don't want to try to predict how I'll do, or put that kind of pressure on myself. Realistically, I know I'm not going to win, but I would like to do well."

As training proceeds and the event draws near, winning remains a very secondary concern.

"A lot of people think I'm crazy for doing this, and it is hard to explain," Kaziak admits, "but it's a personal thing, this triathlon. It's not to prove anything to anyone else. I guess it's just you against yourself."

Canton resident Robbi Woolard is also preparing for a race against herself in the event.

The 30-year-old mother of two is employed as a social worker for the Wayne County Intermediate School District's Head Start program.

Woolard swam competitively in high school and has participated in shorter triathlons for a few years. She met Kaziak when the two competed against each other at a local event, and they have shared training secrets ever since. Separated by miles of land and ocean, the two athletes will meet again in Hawaii for the triathlon.

Like Kaziak, Woolard's acceptance in the championship has meant an intensified training program and some drastic lifestyle changes.

Unlike her friend, Woolard must conduct her regimen in Michigan, and must combine training with both work and her role as wife and mother.

"My husband and family are supportive of this," Woolard says, "which is important, since I spend about 24 hours a week between the three sports."

In an average week, Woolard alternates a 100-mile bike ride with a three-mile swim and a 19-mile run, then fills in between with shorter 50-mile rides and 10-mile runs.

Bicycling poses the biggest challenge of the three sports to Woolard, who uses a wind trainer indoor bike for workouts — a critical piece of equipment with Michigan's unpredictable weather changes.

Why the expense, the time, the grueling workouts? Woolard's answer is similar to her friend's.

"I've always liked sports, I love the outdoors and I always look for goals and challenges," she says.

"Sometimes I set unrealistic goals for myself," Woolard admits, "and at first I thought the triathlon seemed like one of those. But now that I'm training, this doesn't look quite so bad after all. Besides, it's trying that counts. This is the kind of experience that doesn't come along every day."

No more taxes

To the Editor:

On Oct. second the Van Buren School Board is going to try and raise our taxes again.

Do you remember what they did the very first meeting after the millage was defeated last time? It wasn't conserve and cut costs but to raise the $50,000 plus salary of the superintendent and others, and then decide when to have the next millage vote.

The school board claims they haven't had a millage increase since 1978; true, but what they don't say, and hope we all forget, is that due to state equalization our taxes have almost doubled since that time. Compare this year's tax bill to 1978.

The summer tax you just paid is half of your school tax per year, the other half is due in Dec.

People should realize most of the increase in their house payments, and rent, over the years is due to increased taxes.

Other school districts have a much better rating with less cost per student. More tax is not the answer.

They almost slipped the increase past us last time because so few people got out to vote. So please get out and vote so the residents of the school district will be able to afford to stay in the district and our property will be attractive to prospective buyers when we do want to sell.

Mehl
challenged

To the Editor:
Seems to me, Mr. Mehl, that in your article in the Wednesday September 19th Eagle, regarding cronyism, again you are blasting without thinking.

Seems the past Mayors McKinney, Brown and Taylor also appointed people to their administration. People whom they felt they could trust, plus do a good job for the people of the community. Too bad Mayor Pickering couldn't appoint his own council, maybe we wouldn't have the problems we have now.

Mayor Pickering was faced with a $600,000 deficit, plus a time when the economy was down. Mr. Pickering, you have come a long way to straighten out the messes. It takes time to heal all the wrong that has been done to the community. It's just too bad that no matter what Mayor Pickering does, council rebuttles. I don't feel someone can be that wrong all the time.

So Mr. Mehl, quit crying the blues, grow up, and do your job as a councilperson. I think City Hall is running a good ship despite council's selfishness and negativism towards Mayor Pickering.

Mondale rally

To the Editor:

I was appalled at the tactics of the anti-choice people at the rally for Mondale for President last Monday night (Sept. 17th) at the Wayne Memorial High. I'm sure all who were there were there to become more fully informed as to where candidates stand on certain issues.

I know it offered me a wonderful opportunity to make my own evaluation of Walter Mondale as President.

Telecommunicating in 1984

NOW YOUR TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES COME FROM A NEW FAMILY OF COMPANIES.

As a Michigan Bell customer, you have been affected by recent changes in the telecommunications industry.

However—with few exceptions—the services previously available directly from Michigan Bell are still available to you... either from Michigan Bell or from one of our new Ameritech companies.

When federal action led to the reorganization of AT&T, Michigan Bell separated from AT&T and joined Ameritech, a new holding company headquartered in Chicago. Besides Michigan Bell, Ameritech's large family of companies includes a host of subsidiaries you may not have heard about, as well as the former Bell telephone companies in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Wisconsin.

How we and these other Ameritech companies may be of service in meeting your telecommunications needs is described in the following.

Basic Telecommunications Services: Residence and Business.

MICHIGAN BELL provides basic telecommunications services including dial tone, flat rate, or measured service, white pages telephone listings, line repair services, and disabled customer services. You can also get optional network services like Touch-Tone and Custom Calling services from Michigan Bell, and business network services such as Centrex and network transmission services for voice, data, and image. And we provide public telephone service as well as long distance service within Michigan Bell's service areas, including optional long distance calling plans.

Equipment: Business.

MICHIGAN BELL COMMUNICATIONS, INC., serves as Michigan Bell's sales arm for business network services, including Centrex. It provides complete business communications systems, offering products and equipment from a wide variety of telecommunications suppliers, including terminal equipment for The Centrex Universe.

Equipment: Residence and Small Business.

The new CONSUMER PRODUCTS DIVISION of MICHIGAN BELL COMMUNICATIONS, INC., provides telephone equipment for residence and small business customers, with ordering by phone and delivery to your home or business.

Directory Advertising.

Michigan Bell Yellow Pages advertising is now handled by AMERITECH PUBLISHING, INC., the publisher and provider of Michigan Bell Yellow Pages directory advertising, including Neighborhood, Specialty, Business-to-Business, and Travelers' Directories.

Mobile Communications Services.

MICHIGAN BELL offers tone and digital display radio paging in metro Detroit, Lansing, and Grand Rapids through our Bellboy Service™ agent... A Beeper Company.

Michigan Bell also provides Improved Mobile Telephone Service (IMTS) in most major Michigan cities.

Facts down the line.

We suggest that you watch for further informational messages in your newspapers and in your monthly telephone bills. Because your telephone business office is busily engaged in normal day-to-day telephone service matters, we are providing this toll-free number for our Let's Talk Center as a source for answers to the questions you may have about your changing telephone company. 1 800 555-5000.

Quigley-Shelly marry

Cathy Quigley and Martin Shelly were united in marriage at Trenton Hills Brethren Church in Adrian, Mich., Sept. 1.

Rev. Robert Swoeland officiated at the noon nuptial service and Steve and Glenn Flint provided piano, organ and guitar music for the couple and their guests.

Lynn Wright of Adrian acted as maid of honor at the service, while Jill Plate and Jackie Wright, a sister of the bride, served as bridesmaids. All were gowned in pink-colored dresses for the wedding.

Stacie Cutler of Adrian acted as flower girl at the service and Caleb Swoeland was the ringbearer.

Assuming the duties of best man at the wedding was Stephen Motte of Port Huron. Ushers and groomsmen included Glen and Karl Shelly, brothers of the groom.

The bride is the daughter of Jack and Choyce Quigley of Adrian and the groom's parents are Alton and Elisabeth Shelly of Greenbush in Wayne.

The mother of the bride was dressed in pink for the nuptials, while the groom's mother chose a lavender two-piece ensemble for the ceremony.

The couple was honored at a reception at the church fellowship hall following the exchange of their marital vows.

Following a honeymoon trip by car to northern Michigan, the couple became residents of Adrian.

The bride is a graduate of Adrian High School and Huntington College. She is a physical education teacher with Trenton Hills United Brethren Church.

The groom graduated from Adrian College this year with a cum laude degree in business management. He is employed at Meijers in Adrian.

Diet Pill Sweeping U.S.

New Grapefruit 'Super Pill' Gives Fast Weight Loss

No Dieting - Eat All You Want
Pill Does All the Work

BEVERLY HILLS, CA. (Special)—An amazing new "super" grapefruit pill has recently been developed and perfected that reportedly "guarantees" that you will easily lose at least 10 pounds in 10 days. Best of all, it allows you to "eat as much as you want of your favorite foods and still lose a pound a day or more starting from the very first day until you achieve the ideal weight and figure you desire."

This "super" grapefruit pill is a dramatically improved version of the world famous grapefruit diet. It is far more effective than the original and eliminates "the mess, fuss, and high cost of eating half a fresh grapefruit at every meal."

"Pill Does All the Work"

According to the manufacturer, "the pill itself does all the work while you quickly lose weight with NO starvation "diet menus" to follow. NO calorie counting, NO exercise, and NO hunger pangs." It is 100% safe. You simply take the pill with a glass of water before each meal and the amazing combination of powerful ingredients are so effective they take over and you start losing weight immediately.

Pill Has ALL Daily Vitamins

The powerful and unique combination of ingredients are what make this a "super-pill". It contains highly potent grapefruit concentrate and a diuretic to help eliminate bloat and puffiness. No need to take any vitamins to maintain your good health and energy. The pill is fortified with ALL (100%) of the U.S. Government daily vitamin requirements.

Contains Japanese 'Glucomannan'

Each pill also contains an amazingly effective amount of "glucomannan", the remarkable natural dietary fiber discovery from Japan (used successfully for over 1500 years) that expands in your stomach and gives you a full and satisfied feeling all day long.

The super-pill is already sweeping the country with glowing reports of easy and fast weight loss from formerly overweight people in all walks of life who are now slim, trim, and attractive again.

Now Available to Public

You can order your supply of these highly successful "super" grapefruit pills (now available directly from the manufacturer by mail order only) by sending $12 for a 14-day supply (or $20 for a 30-day supply, or $35 for a 60-day supply) cash, check, or money order to: Citrus Industries, 9903 Santa Monica Bl., Dept. W24, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. (Unconditional money-back guarantee if not satisfied.) Visa, MasterCard, and Amer. Express OK. (Send card number, expiration date, and signature.) For fastest service for credit card orders ONLY call toll free 1-(800)-862-6262, ext. W24. Copyright 1984.

One of a kind

The Tastee Freez Restaurant, located at 5006 S. Wayne Road in Wayne, now offers a full menu of food and ice cream at a new, year-round facility. Manager Laurie Spangler (above) oversees operations at the 2000-square-foot restaurant.

New Tastee Freez becomes year-round family restaurant

With the cold weather months approaching, it's time for the Tastee Freez in Wayne to a) close down for the season, b) quickly sell all the ice cream before the doors shut, or c) none of the above.

Anyone guessing "a" or "b" should visit the attractive, new restaurant located at 5006 S. Wayne Road, the site of the Tastee Freez since 1956. A major renovation project has been completed and the former 500-square-foot Tastee Freez stand has been transformed into a 2,000-square-foot facility.

Gunther Gebel-Williams will bring his wild animal act to the Joe Louis Arena as part of the 113th edition of the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus, which opens Sept. 28 for 17 performances through Oct. 7. Tickets for the Greatest Show on Earth are priced at $6, $7.50 and $9 and may be purchased at the arena box office and all Ticket World Outlets. For general information, call 567-6000.

Concert features circus acts

A number of local performers will participate in the Plymouth Symphony League's Young People's Concert at 2 and 4 p.m. Oct. 7 at the Plymouth Salem High School Auditorium. The program will feature "The No Elephant Circus," a series of juggling, fire-eating, pantomime and clown acts.

Among the symphony musicians are Canton Residents Diane Oatley (first violin); Thurston Matthews (cello); Robert Williams (contra bassoon); Eldon Scott (percussion), and James Solberg (percussion). Westland musicians include Peggy Pickering (viola); Ann Augustin Jacobs (oboe), and Debbie Castellano (percussion).

The Plymouth Symphony Orchestra, which features 88 musicians, will accompany six circus professionals during the performance. Audience participation in several of the circus acts will be permitted.

Tickets, priced at $2.50, may be purchased at the Book Break

WORLD SERIES

WORLD SERIES. The opening game of the 1984 Fall Classic, which, because of the unique situation in Wrigley Field, will open in the home of the American League pennant winner if Chicago prevails in the senior circuit, and in San Diego if the Padres win. You see, there's no lights in the Cubs' home park, and both the network and baseball commissioner's office want to start the Series in prime time, so... well, you get the picture!

Clarks
mark 50th wedding

Mr. and Mrs. J. Dewey Clark of Brighton, Mich and Dunedin, Fla. marked their golden wedding anniversary Sept. 1.

The couple formerly resided in Belleville and Canton Township. Their anniversary was marked with a celebration Sept. 9 hosted by the couple's children and grandchildren at the Burroughs Farms Road House. Guests were treated to a three-tiered cake trimmed in gold, topped with flowers and a 50-year anniversary couple. On display were photos of the couple from the past to present.

Virginia Hall-Reed, the maid of honor at the wedding of the couple in 1934 at Linden, Mich. attended the celebration.

Mrs. Clark is the former Marian L. Hall of Linden. The couple are the parents of five children, Barbara Reynolds of Ypsilanti, Joel D. Clark of Canton, Carol Hisey of Canton and Rhonda Hodgkins of Detroit. They are the grandparents of 11 and the great-grandparents of one.

Clark is the founder of Clark Block and Supply, Inc. in Canton and Clark Building Supply Co. in Ann Arbor. He is a former member of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce and a past president of the Belleville Kiwanis. He is also a past Lt. Governor of the Kiwanis and a member of Dearborn Masonic Lodge 172. The couple formerly were members of Faith United Methodist Church in Denton, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Dewey Clark

They presently are members of the Kiwanis Club of Countryside Fla., the Linden Senior Citizens Club and the First United Methodist Church of Countryside, Fla.

Out-of-town guests from Flint, Traverse City, Brooklyn, Detroit, Grosse Pointe, Mt. Clemens, Holly, Charlevoix, Wayne, Canton, Ypsilanti, Standish, Birch Run, Montrose, Fenton, Linden, Gaines, Flat Rock, Westland, Livonia and Ann Arbor helped honor the couple at the party.

Jahnckes observe golden anniversary

Richard and Ivy Jahncke renewed their marital vows at a Sept. 1 service at the Montrose United Methodist Church in Montrose, Mich. and then returned home to greet their family and friends who helped them celebrate the golden anniversary of their wedding.

The couple was originally wed at the Salvation Army Temple in Detroit, Aug. 31, 1934.

Mrs. Jahncke is the former Ivy Easty. She chose a rose-colored dress with yellow roses for the renewal of her wedding vows.

Attending the celebration were the maid-of-honor at the original wedding, Phyllis Oliver of Ypsilanti. She acted as matron of honor at the reception of the couple's nuptial rites. Ross Easty of California who performed the duties of ringbearer 50 years ago for the couple, acted as best man at the service. Rev. Richard Beemer heard the couple repeat their vows for the second time.

Jahncke is retired from General Motors where he worked until 1970. His wife was a teacher in the Montrose Schools until her retirement in 1972. Both were officers of the Salvation Army during the early years of their marriage.

They are members of the Montrose United Methodist Church in Montrose where they have lived for 31 years. He is a member of the Masons and his wife is retired from the Michigan State Aerospace Committee.

Guests at the celebration included residents of Union Lake, Belleville, Detroit, Livonia, California, Ypsilanti, Monroe, Grand Rapids, Howell, Iowa, Livonia and Taylor.

The couple received a money tree from their family and were honored with a letter from President and Mrs. Reagan and Gov. and Mrs. James Blanchard.

The party was hoted by their brothers, sisters, nieces and nephews.

Locals do well in 4-H

Several Wayne County 4-H members placed well at the Michigan 4-H Livestock Expo, August 13-16 at Michigan State University.

Elizabeth Herring of Belleville won a 4-day-trip to Toronto, Ontario, in the Livestock Trifecta. The Trifecta is a total accumulation of points during the 4-day contest. Beth also placed 17th in Beef Showmanship, ninth in Swine Showmanship, fourth in Livestock Judging Reasons, 20th in Live-Animal Evaluation, ninth in Individual Public Speaking, 10th in Overall Public Speaking and ninth in Livestock Photography.

Bea Herring of Belleville placed 13th in Swine Showmanship.

According to Connie Testorelli, Wayne County Program Assistant, the purpose of the annual state-wide event is to encourage 4-H members to broaden their skills and expertise in livestock and related fields.

This year's competition included livestock judging and evaluation, livestock public speaking, demonstration and photography contests, Livestock Quiz Bowl and Ag Olympics, and the Veterinary Science Fair.

For more information on joining 4-H, call the Wayne Extension Office at 721-6576.

Mrs. Juanita Akers and sister, Mrs. Elda Bohl, were among the relatives who attended the wedding of Juanita's grandson, Paul Andrew Berry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Berry of Westland, and Mary Ruth Lesterance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lesterance of Plymouth, at 1 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 15, at the Newberg United Methodist Church.

The reception held on the lawn of the home of the bride's parents.

Following a honeymoon in Northern Michigan, the newly weds will reside in Nashville, Tenn.

Other relatives attending the wedding were Roy and Margaret Akers from Leesburg, Va., and their daughter.

Mrs. Hildur Waters of Marine, Minn., has been a guest this past week of her daughter and husband, Addie and Albert Dalph of Edgar Street.

Afer a month's visit in Belleville with relatives and friends of both the former Hazel Sears and her husband of nearly 50 years, John Kofadner, they left for their home in Sun City, Calif., on Sunday of last week.

While making their headquarters at the homes of two of Hazel's many sisters, Monica Mendez and Dorothy and Walter Schroeder, they enjoyed doing many various things. On a recent Friday, they, with sisters Forothy Schroeder, Monica Mendez and Alberta Sair, drove to Toronto, Ont., and attended Mass with Hid Holiness, Pope John Paul II, and visited St. Michael's Cathedral. They drove to Midland and visited Martyr's Shrine.

En route home they drove around Georgian Bay to Sarnia where they spent the night before going to South Hampton where they enjoyed a shopping spree, before crossing the Blue Water Bridge at Port Huron and on home.

After having spent the summer months visiting Michigan relatives and friends, Clarence and Dorothy Roulo recently left for their home at Fort Pierce, Fla.

Mrs. Eva Lupher spent last Tuesday and Wednesday at the annual reunion of College friends held this year at Pokarton State Park in Indiana.

Richard Elliott from San Jose, Calif., a project manager for a large computer firm in California, spent several days this past week with his friend, Dennis Williams of Beckley Road. While here they attended two Tiger ball games and the races at Hazel Park.

A former Elwell Road resident, Virginia Turney, now of Sanford, N.C., was a caller last Tuesday at the home of Rachel and Russell Wilson of Elwell Road.

Loretta E. Lee of Belleville and Joyce and Walter Rochowiak and their children, Colete and Wally, along with Mrs. Helen Rochowiak and Brian McClinton of Belleville, have returned home from Washington, Pa., where they attended the third annual reunion of the Szolik Family.

The reunion was held at the Red Fox Lodge in Washington, with 100 guests present.

The aunts, one a resident of Washington, Adele Szolik, and Terese Szolik of Cleveland, Ohio, were in attendance, while an uncle, who will be 95 this year was unable to attend.

There was plenty of food, entertainment and games for the children and adults. A pinochle tournament was won by Mr. and Mrs. Steven Lipinski of West Virginia. There also was bingo playing and dancing.

New officers were elected for next year, with Dan Huffman, president; Jim DeVou, vice-president; Cheryl Ann Friend, secretary; Chester Lipinski, treasurer; Charlotte Howard, Nancy Friend and David Emrach, games and recreation.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wilson spent Thursday of last week with the Dennis Wilson family at Caro, celebrating their grandson's Dennis, eighth birthday and also grandma Rachel's birthday.

Mrs. Ruth Roulo of Liberty Street and daughter Margarita Remur of Greylock Street were among the many relatives and friends who attended a Stork Shower for the former's niece, Mrs. Terri Riopelle, held Sunday, Sept. 16, at the home of the honoree's grandmother, Mrs. Peter Roulo of Dearborn. All enjoyed a buffet luncheon and several appropriate games.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Brown from Ellenton, Fla., were guests this past week of Mrs. Eva Lupher. Mrs. Brown will be remembered here as the former Marjorie Lingemfelter, a former school nurse.

The September meeting of Ypsilanti Chapter DAR was held on Thursday evening, the 13th at the Savage Road home of Phyllis Seaman with co-hostesses Mildred Artley, Betty Gress, Mary Claire Ellward. Speaker for the evening was attorney Shirley Burgayne of Ann Arbor whose subject was the United States Constitution. Light refreshments were served later.

Mrs. Dorothy Vedder of Saline was a dinner guest last Sunday of her brother and wife, Russell and achel Wilson of Elwell Road.

Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Hasse of Dearborn spent Tuesday with their Aunt, Mrs. Joseph Spring and enjoyed dinner together at a local restaurant.

The annual birthday dinner of Belleville Chapter No. 73, O.E.S., will be held at the Masonic Temple at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 3. For reservations by Sept. 29 call 697-2211 or 697-5798.

The United Methodist Women are busy these days planning the annual Harvest ham dinner to be held at the First United Methodist Church on Charles Street on Thursday, Oct. 18$

Vernon White has returned to his home at Titusville, Fla., after having spent a week with his nephew, James White an the latter's mother, Helen White of Bedell Street. While here they all attended the wedding of a relative in Metamora, Ohio, and had dinner with relatives in Madison Heights and Warren.

CONTENTS OF CORVETTE BITES THE DUST!!!

Dear Letter Writer:

I think I am going nuts. I have tried and tried to get some satisfaction from my insurance company. The just keep wanting more and more information and keep putting me off. Can you please write a letter that may help.

Sincerely, LL

Dear Insurance Company:

Please accept this letter as a final and sincere effort on my part to amicably resolve the above-referenced claim. On or about September 5, 1982, my 1979 Corvette was vandalized and damaged. This "Damage" claim was settled on approximately September 8, 1982.

At the time of this vandalism, I filed a simultaneous homeowner's claim for the contents of the vehicle. I refer you to my "open" file and ask that you read it to familiarize yourself with the events that have transpired thus far regarding the homeowner's portion of the claim.

On or about February, 1983, I received a proposed settlement from you, a copy of which I retain. I found the settlement to be acceptable with the exception of the price of my camera, which was priced at approximately $100 less than what I am prepared to settle for. During the middle of February, I called Mr. S and subsequently, Mr. B and expressed my contention that the settlement was low by the $100 figure. Mr. B, at that time, informed me that the claim would not be paid at all, until I provided additional documentation.

I have provided your company with ad naseum documentation and verification of ownership. I have been subjected to innuendos regarding my integrity and have spent considerable time and money, i.e. long distance telephone calls, etc. in attempting to comply with your requirements.

Please accept this letter as my final request for a check, made payable to "LL", from the insurance company in the amount of $1,150.00 in settlement of my claim of March 15, 1983.

In the event that you have any difficulty complying with this most reasonable and long overdue request on my part, please send me a copy of the Insurance code governing this matter.

Sincerely, LL

RESOLUTION:The insurance company again denied the claim. At last conversation, LL said "I will see an attorney" but, somehow or other, I suspect LL never did. It is truly easy, although time consuming, to exercise your rights. I wish more people would. The time spent in complaining about injustices perpetrated against us could be well spent seeking remedies.

Belleville BPW observes its 38th birthday

The Belleville Business and Professional Women's club (BPW) celebrated their 38th birthday on Sept. 10 at the United Methodist Church of Denton.

Following dinner, the program continued, having been arranged by the Membership Committee — Ila Hayes, chairman, Laverne Finley, Carole Sampson and Faye Sotomayor.

Dorothy Haener, retired international representative with the UAW, for the Women's Department was the speaker. Her message told about the need for passage of the Equal Rights Amendment, to support working women. All facets of her message revealed the inequities most working women suffer on their jobs.

Haener was one of the 10 career women of Michigan, who were honored last fall, hers for her expertise in the area of labor. More than 100 women were screened last year from education, industry and business to select these 10 women.

Also, Tina Samsel, the Belleville High student who was selected by the BPW to attend Girl's State, in June was welcomed and honored.

One new member, Linda Maton, was inducted into membership.

Five guests — of the Ypsilanti BPW Club, Marge Hiser, Nina Wolford, Hazel Stitt, Arlene West and Joyce Mallory — were present for the celebration.

Omnicom Cable Television, was on hand, to film the program. It will be aired this month.

Emphasis was placed on the BPW Fashion Show, which will be Saturday, Oct. 20, at the Brass Connection of Belleville. Lunch will be served at 1 p.m., and fashions will be from Klines of Ann Arbor.

The Belleville Community Blood Bank, will take place on Oct. 29 at the Belleville High School auditorium. The BPW will sponsor this drive.

Business Women's Week will be observed Oct. 21-27.

Fall District XIII will take place, Wednesday, Oct. 3, at the Stinson Center in Ecorse. Past National President, Phyllis Harrison, will be guest speaker.

A BPW Leadership Training Conference will be held at the Sheraton-Lansing on Oct. 1st.

The Michigan Distinguished Women's Award Banquet will be at the Sheraton-Lansing on Oct. 27th.

The State Board Conference for BPW members will occur Sept. 28-30 at the Grand Traverse Resort, Traverse City.

Guests are welcome, to monthly dinner meetings by making reservations at 697-8542.

Women of the Moose met

October is the month for members to bring their gifts for Mooseheart and Moosehaven.

Members also are reminded that December is bazaar month and that they should contact the chairman about what they will be donating.

The chapter has resumed its fish fries, which next month will be served on Oct. 5, 12, 19 and 26. Members are extending an invitation to residents to come.

Romulus breaks home field jinx, 6-0

Belleville is victim in overtime

Target hunter

Canton's David Knapp has the time but apparently not the target he's looking for during Friday night's encounter against neighboring Livonia Churchill. Churchill came back from two previous weeks of defeat to stop their Western Division rivals and open the conference with an important victory.

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Jinx? What jinx?
It took one overtime period for Romulus to put to rest the notion that it can't win on the home field. The Eagles dispelled the myth by turning back a stubborn Belleville High 6-0, Friday night.
However, it also took 18 games over a span of three years for Coach Norb Glover's gridders to earn their first win on the home turf since moving to the Junior High Stadium from the Senior High.
"We're obviously elated to win," said Coach Glover whose Eagles are 1-2 on the non-conference season. "The team played well on defense, but we do need to work on our offense."
Belleville coach Pete O'Neill was disappointed in the loss, and offered this comment: "We didn't have our team ready to play football. We had some excellent chances to score, but couldn't capitalize upon them."
Romulus resolved a scoreless four-quarter deadlock in its favor in the overtime period when, on the second play from scrimmage, Bob Sloan bolted into the Belleville end zone from six yards out.

In the Belleville overtime series, the Tigers looked like they had the right scoring combination when, on their first play, Ernie Paponetti slipped off tackle for a five-yard gain.
However, the Tigers were tossed for a five-yard loss on their second try and an offside penalty hurried them back even further.
Paponetti again got the call on the next play and rushed for three, then the fourth down came up and Belleville went to the air. The missile hit a Romulus defender in the back, ending the series and the game.
Belleville had an excellent scoring opportunity in the first quarter when safety Jim Utt intercepted a Romulus pass at the Eagle 35. With Bob Spicer at the helm, they moved to the Romulus four-yard line where they were stopped in their tracks.
Spicer, injured — he may be out for the season — was replaced by Michael Sprau who, according to Coach O'Neill, "did a fine job considering the circumstances."

Sloan led the Eagle ballcarriers with 91 yards on 15 carries and Vince Morris, returning to the Romulus line-up after an injury, "is almost 80 percent O.K.," according to Glover.
Four Romulus gridders — Jimmy Whitehill, a defensive end, Dave Bergman, a linebacker, Tracy Cline, nose guard, and Ron Ball, defensive halfback, were instrumental in shutting off Belleville's offense. Ron Downey, tackle, had four solos and four assists, and Jerry Whitehill, a freshman, had a sack of the QB, five assists and three solos, while Scott McNett, came up with three unassisted tackles.
Romulus has an opportunity to make it — would you believe — two straight on the home field when winless Taylor Center comes to town Friday night at 7:30. The game brings the curtains up on the Metro Conference season.

"We're not looking at their record," Glover said. "All of our games are going to be tough."
Belleville will shoot for its second Wolverine "A" victory when winless Wayne Memorial invades the Tiger lair Friday night. O'Neill cautioned "not to be deceived by Wayne's record."
"They are always tough," O'Neill said. "And, also they gave Fordson a lot to think about."
O'Neill added that, "We're not an awesome football team. We have scored only 12 points and that was against a team like Monroe which is yet to win. And, losing Spicer, who hits on at least 50 percent of his passes and is a natural leader, is very costly to this team."
About the loss to Romulus, O'Neill noted that, "the defense played well enough to win". He went on to laud the efforts of Ken Krug, who has seven solo tackles, Darrell Elder, and Craig Banotai.
Banotai, a linebacker, and defensive halfback, Steve Else, also sustained injuries.

Stoitsiadis sets passing record as Churchill clips Canton

By BOB TURON
ANP Special Writer

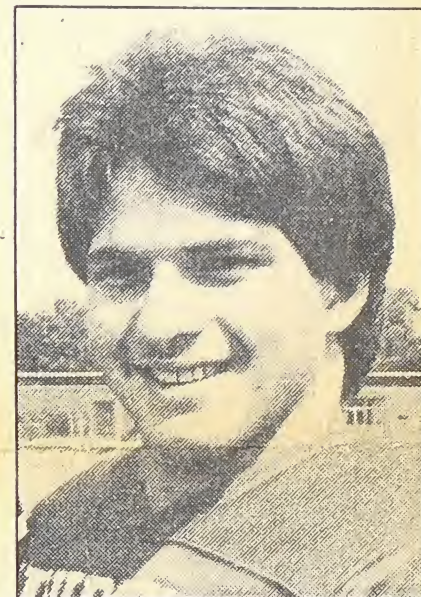

Senior quarterback John Stoitsiadis set a school passing record Friday in leading Livonia Churchill to a thrilling three-overtime 37-31 victory over Plymouth-Canton.
Stoitsiadis tore apart the Chief secondary for a school high 346 yards and four touchdowns, despite a ferocious pass rush that at times had him scrambling for his life.
"He's certainly the hub of our offense," Charger coach Herb Osterland said of his strong armed signal caller, "but it takes a total team effort and John had a lot of help."

The help came primarily from split end Chris Phifer, who had 10 receptions for 197 yards, and Tim Davis, who had four catches for 110 yards.
Canton jumped out to a 7-0 lead as quarterback David Knapp scored on a four yard run late in the first quarter. Knapp raced 69 yards in the second quarter to up the lead to 14-0.
Stoitsiadis hit Davis with a 65 yard bomb to set up the first Charger score. The senior passing whiz ran in from three yards out and, when the Chiefs were caught offside on the extra point try, went in again for a two point conversion.

Penalties were a major factor in the Chiefs' downfall. The officials penalized Canton 13 times for a total of 150 yards.
With little more than a minute left in the first half, Stoitsiadis moved his team downfield with the precision of a surgeon as he hooked up with Phifer for four straight completions, the last of which came with 14 seconds remaining and enabled the Chargers to take a 15-14 halftime advantage.

Canton's Scott Campbell recovered a Churchill fumble on the first play of the second half. Knapp hit Tony Aiken with a 25 yard aerial to put the Chiefs in front once again.
Dwayne Bennett forced another Charger fumble in the end zone and tri-captain Jeff Rummell pounced on the loose ball for a Chief touchdown. Dave Liuzzo's fourth extra point gave the Chiefs a 28-15 lead.
Canton appeared to ice the game when Aiken intercepted a fourth down desperation pass with 55 seconds left to play. But the aggressive Charger defense stripped Knapp of the ball, Stoitsiadis found Phifer three times, kicked the PAT and sent the game into overtime.

Asked why Knapp didn't just fall on the ball and kill the clock, Canton coach Rich Barr accepted the blame for presenting Churchill with another opportunity.
"I probably should have a told him to just take the snap and go down," Barr admitted. "You just don't expect a fumble in that situation. But it should never have come to that point. When you score that many points, you should win."
Mike Johnson scored for Canton in the first overtime, but a questionable clipping penalty brought the play back. The teams exchanged field goals in the second OT and sent the game into a third extra session.
Stoitsiadis passed eight yards

John Stoitsiadis
to Scott Papich for the winning score. The point-after attempt failed, leaving the Chiefs with a chance to pull out a victory. But on third down Phifer intercepted a Knapp pass and the game was over.
Knapp led the Canton rushing attack with 95 yards in 13 tries while Mike Johnson added 64 yards in 18 attempts.

Bentley jolts Salem

Plymouth Salem's record dipped to 1-2 Friday night, as the Rocks were upset by Livonia Bentley by the score of 10-7.
Bentley's Chad Darke kicked a 27-yard field goal in the second overtime period to settle the issue.
"We just didn't play very well at all," said Salem coach Tom Moshimer. "We just weren't in the game mentally, and Bentley was. They played a good game, but we were as flat as I've seen this team in a long time."

After a scoreless first half, Bentley jumped on top 7-0 in the third quarter when running back Marty Altounian took it in from the one.
With less than two minutes left in the fourth quarter, Salem got a much-needed break when, in a punting situation, the snap from center flew over the kicker's head and was recovered by Salem.

After moving inside the 10-yard line, Salem finally got on board when quarterback Steve Sobditch connected with out-

Wayne is waylaid by Fordson, 27-0

By DENNIS NIEMIEC

Wayne Memorial paid dearly for its inability to capitalize on scoring opportunities, dropping a 27-0 verdict to highly-ranked Fordson before a Parents' Night crowd.
The Zebras consistently moved the ball during the first half last Friday night against a tough Tractor defense but still found themselves on the short end of a 13-0 score at intermission.
In the second quarter the Zebras again threatened at the Tractor 15 but a couple incomplete passes thwarted the march.

"We have some problems to iron out on the offensive front line," admitted Coach Floyd Carter. "There were some miscues up front and some sacks that stopped us."
Trailing 13-0 in the third period, the Zebras made another attempt to get back in the game by moving to the Tractor 8. An incomplete aerial, an option for no yardage and a sack ended the threat and left the Zebras at 0-3 on the season, 0-2 in Wolverine A play.
Senior tailback John Janowicz spearheaded the Fordson attack, gaining 96 yards in 18 rushes, including touchdown jaunts of two and six yards.
Fordson 0 13 0 14-27
Wayne 0 0 0 0-0

Dan Herman added a 12-yard TD run and Joe Kopia scored from seven yards out for the victors, who remain undefeated after notching their second shutout of the campaign.
Lost yardage on sacks left the Zebras with 169 yards in total offense compared to 320 for Fordson, which garnered 20 first downs to 11 for Wayne. Fullback Kwan Hearn and halfback Matt Mason each gained 35 yards on the ground for Wayne and Mike Jackson added 28 yards.
Quarterback Bob Millyard completed two of 12 tosses for 57 yards with the big strike a 46-yarder to Ed Jordan.
"We're getting better," said Carter, who missed practice time last week due to the flu bug. "We've moved the ball well against a very strong defense. But we've got to eliminate the turnovers and mistakes (Wayne suffered three interceptions and fumbled a punt against Fordson)."

Carter singled out Hearn and guard Jim Caruana for praise ("Hearn was all over the field on defense") and noted that the Zebra running backs had carried the ball aggressively.
It was a "very trying" week, according to Carter, who faces the possibility of taking on Belleville Friday without a number of starters following an incident last week. Several football players were involved in a ruckus that occurred during a Class Night activity which has resulted in the suspension of several Wayne Memorial students.
The status of the gridders will be determined this week, Carter said. Wayne travels to Belleville for a 7:30 p.m. league contest on Friday.

Steelers shut out Cougars

The Plymouth Steelers swept all three of their football games against the Belleville Cougars who found the going rough and tough on a rainy Sunday afternoon.

The Cougars wasted an excellent offensive performance by Darryl Montie who scored both of his team's touchdowns in a 26-13 setback by the freshmen unit.

The Steelers blanked the Cougars' junior varsity despite a stellar defensive effort by Jay Helm, while the varsity was defeated 29-6. Virgil Chandler scampered 60 yards on an end around TD.

Pistons should win Central with ease

Although they were the laughing stock of the professional basketball world for years, the Detroit Pistons should capture their first Central Division title this season.

And they should do it with relative ease. The Pistons drafted poorly, made bad trades, didn't draw many fans and didn't win many games in the past. In fact, since moving to Detroit from Fort Wayne, Indiana back in 1957, the Pistons have had just four .500 plus seasons and no division titles.

Well, chalk up a division crown for Detroit this season. With the recent matching of offers for free agents Kelly Tripuka and Vinnie Johnson, the Pistons have the nucleus. Returning is the team that last year came within a victory of winning the Central Division. Last season's 49 wins were the second most victories for Detroit in those 27 years in the Motor City. Adding power forward, Dan Roundfield, (picked up in a trade with Atlanta), makes this team that much better.

Here's why. They only had to give up a reserve (Cliff Levingston) and a player they couldn't sign anyway (Antoine Carr) for one of the top players in the league.

The Pistons last season did not have a real post up player. Roundfield is one. They were also one of the weakest defensive teams and lacked a real shot blocker. Roundfield has made the All Defensive Team in the N.B.A. more than once and has been one of the leading shot blockers in the league for several seasons.

Roundfield is also a good scorer and runs the break well. And with he Pistons being a fast-break team, he'll fit in very well. The fact the Pistons have Tripuka and Johnson in the fold helps a lot. True, Tripuka doesn't play defense and can't rebound, but with Roundfield here this frees Tripuka to leave quicker on the break (if that's possible) and as a result get a lot of easy baskets. Roundfield will be covering up a lot for Tripuka. Johnson is one of the top reserves in the league. He can spot either Isiah Thomas at point guard or John Long at the point guard. Johnson can score and pass, is a scrapper and is one of the best offensive rebounding guards in the league. This is a good, solid ball club. Isiah makes the team go. He is the finest pure point guard in the league. And he's a great scorer as well as passer. Center Bill Laimbeer is one of the best rebounders in the game. Long is a fine shooter and runs well, and Roundfield can do it all. The Pistons' starting five is as good as anybody's. As I mentioned they should win the Central Division in a breeze. Milwaukee has won it the last four seasons, but the Bucks are getting old and have slowed down. Atlanta is rebuilding. Chicago has some talent but is young and inexperienced. Indiana, the same. That leaves Cleveland. The Cavaliers may have the most pathetic organization in all of sports. They don't have a chance. The Pistons will win the Central Division and if they stay away from injuries have a chance to win the N.B.A. championship. This is not the best team in the N.B.A. But it's close.

Romulus' 'B' playoff champs

Dolphins set swim tryout dates

If you have "intermediate" swimming ability and reside in Wayne or the Wayne Memorial high school attendance area, the Wayne Recreation Dolphins' Swim Club would like to hear from you.

There is also one other stipulation, you must be between the ages of 5 and 14.

"We're looking for boys and girls who have some swimming ability," said Coach Jim McPartlin. "In order to select the candidates we want, we're holding tryouts."

The tryouts will be conducted beginning 7:45 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. on Tues., Oct. 2 and Wed., Oct. 3 at the Wayne High swimming pool. Candidates must attend both sessions.

At the conclusion of the tryouts, the club will accept registration fees. Cost for the program is $30 per swimmer or $75 for a family with two or more swimmers.

Telephone Coach McPartlin at 595-2244 for information.

Zebras are off to fast swim start

Wayne Memorial's girls' swimming team got off to a fast start last week as Coach Jim McPartlin's tankers buried Garden City and Ypsilanti in dual meet competition.

Behind Carrie Basner and Rhonda Gramham's record-setting performances, the Zebras dunked out-of-league rival, Garden City 127-46. Basner now owns the 200-yard individual medley sophomore mark thanks to a 2:29.8 effort. She erased Sandy Burns' mark of 2:33.5 from the record book.

Graham turned in a 6:06.0 to take down Wendy Garner's former record of 6:07.6 for the 500-yard freestyle.

Claiming nine of 11 first places, Wayne destroyed Ypsilanti, 113-37, as Lia Jaquete picked up a pair of victories. She touched in first for the 100-yard butterfly (1:13.3) and also was first in the 100-yard backstroke (1:12.2).

Belleville is the conference's defending champ.

Patriots win showdown, 7-0 Franklin foils Glenn...again

In 1982, the Rockets of Westland John Glenn entered Livonia Franklin's Snarey Field with a perfect 5-0 record and an eye on the state Class A playoffs.

So did the Patriots, who destroyed the Rocket dreams that afternoon with a 19-7 victory led by the passing of Rich Popp, now the starting quarterback at Wayne State University.

A year later, the Patriots came to the Rockets' Kionka Field to take on Glenn, who sported a perfect 4-0 Northwest Suburban League record.

Led by quarterback Dave Drabicki, the Patriots came up with a 14-11 upset win and denied the Rockets a full championship.

Last Saturday afternoon at Snarey Field, the Patriots continued their mastery over the Rockets with a hard-fought, hard-hitting 7-0 victory. The win raised their overall record to 2-1 while posting their first league triumph.

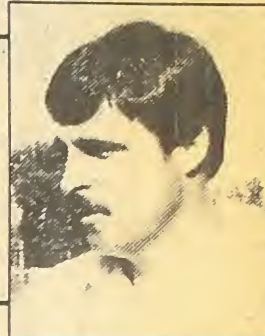

The Rockets, whose own record slipped to 2-1, had a four-game winning streak snapped. The shutout marked the first time since 1981 that the Rocket offense had been whitewashed, a period that extended through 92 quarters.

Glenn entered the game without the services of junior tailback Tony Boles, who had injured a knee late in last week's 23-0 victory over Pontiac Central.

Coach Chuck Gordon was extremely disappointed with his offense saying, "I am completely disappointed. Franklin controlled the line of scrimmage. We just played 'Franklin is one team that always comes ready to play against us. Our offense just didn't do the job.'

terrible."

Patriot Head Coach Armand Vigna, in his 10th season as Patriot mentor and the dean of NWSL coaches, was certainly confident that his Patriots could muster enough firepower to defeat the Rockets.

"It was a big win for us. We had high hopes dashed last week by Livonia Stevenson. We were playing against one of the top-ranked teams in the league."

Glenn failed to move the ball on the opening kickoff so punter Chris Piazza got the Rockets out of trouble with a good punt.

Or so it seemed.

With quarterback Drabicki (Jr., 5-10, 170) at the controls, the Patriots proceeded to move the ball down the field. Using the legs of Brad Norrid (Jr., 5-8, 184) and tailback Joe Karcher (Sr., 5-10, 170), they soon found themselves on the six-yard line with 6:13 left in the opening period.

Vigna sent in the play to Drabicki, who relayed it to his teammates in the huddle.

Drabicki took the snap from center Jim Stesiak (Sr., 5-11, 168), turned around, and gave to Karcher, who slammed into the end zone for the score. Kicker Bob Soenikowski (Jr., 5-11, 144) booted the point-after and Franklin led, 7-0.

But these Rockets did not give up without a fight. They tightened their chin straps, dug a little deeper, and went to work.

"I thought we had an excellent opportunity to score just before the first half," said Gordon. "But we didn't score and that was the only real threat we had all day. When you get a chance to score against Franklin, you better take it."

After testing several plays and finding their confidence, the Rockets got something going late in the second quarter. Tailback Dave Husak (Sr., 5-9, 159) and fullback Dana Jones (Sr., 5-7, 171) pushed the ball downfield as the clock wore down on the first half.

Then Gordon got his strategic wires going as Vigna did early: He got the play to his quarterback Steve Irwin (Jr., 6-0, 193) who put it to work expertly. Irwin stepped back, looked downfield and found receiver Ron Taig (Sr., 6-2, 166) on the

Robichaud routs River Rouge, 27-0

Dearborn Heights Robichaud opened the defense of its Suburban Athletic Conference title last Friday with a lopsided 27-0 rout of River Rouge. The Bulldogs, 3-0, on the season, scored in every quarter as they continued to look impressive on the gridiron.

"Defensively this team is as good as last year's," said Coach Bob Yauck whose 1983 club reached the state semi-finals before being eliminated in post tournament competition. "But, offensively, we have some problems."

Yauck pointed to three dropped passes and erratic play on offense as "reasons for his concern."

"We have a big game coming up and must eliminate the turnovers or we're going to be in trouble," he added.

Robichaud will travel to Ecorse Friday afternoon, (Kick-off is at 3:30 p.m.) to take a winless Red Raider which has failed to find the victory column in three outings this season. But Yauck cautioned that Ecorse's 0-3 record is deceptive.

"They are the biggest team we'll face all season," he said. "Ecorse's losses are to teams like Divine Child and Aquinas, teams that are traditionally powerhouses."

Ecorse has a "Big 10 Conference" caliber fullback in its backfield in 260-pound Richard Berry, and sports an offensive line that averages 220-pounds.

"We're not going to be able to fumble three times and drop passes against them," Yauck warned, "and win."

Robichaud got on the scoreboard midway in the first quarter against Rouge's Panthers when quarterback Ray Carreathers culminated a five-play, 38-yard drive with a two-yard TD sprint. The touchdown was set up by Jeff Price's fumble recovery.

The Dearborn Heights' grid-ders made it a 14-0 game before the half thanks to Carreather's 15-yard touchdown pass to tight end Joe Fears. The second score also capped a sustained drive of 43-yards after an exchange of punts. A 16-yard Carreathers-to-Adrian Thomas pass completion kept the drive alive. Omar Galbraith, a tailback, raced over the goal line for the two-point conversion.

Fears' fumble recovery set up Robichaud's third quarter TD and a 20-yard TD aerial from Carreathers to Dennis McIntosh provided the Bulldogs with the six-pointer. Tok Chae Sims kicked the extra point.

The Bulldogs wrapped up their third victory with Carreathers

Spartan 4th quarter comeback clips Melvindale, 22-21

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Cherry Hill football teams haven't been noted for coming-from-behind and winning. This year's Spartan club apparently is an exception as Coach Ken Mientkiewicz' gridders gave up 21 points in the third quarter but managed to pull out a Tri-River Conference victory 22-21 over Melvindale before a pleased Parents Day crowd.

"It was really unreal," said Mientkiewicz whose Spartans are 1-1 in the conference and 2-1 over-all. "I told the kids that I don't recall any of our previous teams coming back and winning after being down like that.

"And, at least in the last 15 years, no team has come back from total collapse like we did against Melvindale and won a football game."

The Spartans blew a 14-0 lead in the third period when they gave up 21 points to the visiting Cardinals. But Cherry Hill quarterback, Mike Sasseen, injured early in the contest, was inserted into the ball game in the fourth quarter and he engineered a 60-yard drive that culminated in the Spartans' winning TD.

In that crucial drive, Sasseen hooked up with Dion Gibson for a 20-yard pass play and a 17-yarder earlier, plus a Melvindale late hit, moved the ball to the Cardinal 28-yard line where Sasseen teamed with Mike Thibeault for a 28-yard bootleg pass that resulted in the score.

The Spartans went for the two-point conversion and made it, again thanks to a Sasseen to Walker pass.

Melvindale had six minutes to answer. The Cardinals launched a drive that stretched from their own 30 to the Spartan 24-yard line where defense and Joe Walker snapped it with a fumble recovery.

"This is the first time we have beaten Melvindale since they entered the league," Mientkiewicz said. "These kids deserve a lot of credit."

The Spartans made it rough on themselves. They picked up a touchdown in the first period when Sasseen and Walker combined for a 30-yard strike. Then, Gibson kicked his first of two extra points. In the third period, the hosts increased the margin to 14-0 thanks to an excellent kickoff return by Gibson who raced 47 yards to the Cardinal 37.

With Sasseen sidelined due to an ankle hurt, back-up QB Brian Finnerty took over and tossed an eight-yard TD pass to Walker.

Suddenly, Cherry Hill ran into a rash of turnovers and an inspired Melvindale. Cardinal quarterback Dave Ross fired a 37-yard TD pass to Gerald Gasselneyer and Rod Tuttle scored on an eight-yard off tackle play, tying the score at 14-all midway in the third quarter.

Melvindale took the lead when the Spartans fumbled again and the Cardinals recovered on the Spartan 43. Ross, executing the option to perfection, raced 43-yard on the first play from scrimmage, to give the visitors the lead.

"In the fourth period we managed to take away their passing game and Sasseen, who is our team leader, came back to give us a lift," said Mientkiewicz.

Fullback Jeff Burke had 50 yards on 10 carries and Sasseen completed six of nine passes for 130-yards and two TDs. Defensively, Matt Edwards, Wayne Stephens, Jeff Burke and monsterman, Rob Bryer, had an excellent game.

Cherry Hill travels to Robichaud High field Saturday afternoon at 1:30 to take on Dearborn Heights Riverside for its third test. The Rebels are winless in three starts.

"They are always fired up to play us," cautioned Mientkiewicz "and, we have to be ready for them."

Huron ends 20-game losing streak, 33-12

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

New Boston Huron's 33-12 victory over Flat Rock Friday night sent high school football historians to the record books in search of some pertinent answers. One of those is, "How long of a losing streak did Huron end with the victory?"

"I really don't have the answer," said Huron Coach Tom LaBeau, "but I know we didn't win a ball game for the past two seasons, so that's 0-18, and we dropped the first two this year which makes it 0-20.

"Other than that, someone is going to have to do some research," LaBeau added.

LaBeau was satisfied that his team presented him with his first victory as the Chiefs' new head coach. And what's the chance of Huron evening up its over-all record at 2-2 next week when they meet Monroe Catholic Central in Monroe Saturday night?

"Monroe CC has an excellent team," said LaBeau. "They're 3-0 and we're going to have to play an almost flawless game even to stay in the game. They beat Jefferson last week, 14-7, ending one of the longest high school winning streaks in the state."

Flat Rock drew first blood against the Chiefs in their Huron Conference opener, putting the host, in the hole with Don Passerman's 15-yard touchdown run in the first quarter.

However, Huron countered with a pair of TDs in the second period on Don Ziegler's one-yard dive which capped a midfield drive and a John Umin-to-Ziegler 5-yard TD pass toward the end of the half that lifted the Chiefs into the lead 12-6.

The Chiefs got some breathing room in the third quarter as Guy Cugle took a five-yard TD pass from Umin, but Flat Rock closed the gap to 18-12 with a fourth period score before Huron broke it open with a pair of TDs.

Huron culminated a 11-play midfield drive with Nick Zambeck's one-yard TD plunge and Umin's conversion pass to Cugle was good for the extra two points. Jim Umin, John's twin brother, picked off a Flat Rock pass to set up the final Huron score, a 33-yard sprint by teammate Tom Richardson.

John Umin kicked the extra point.

Umin completed nine of 12 passes for 127 yards and two TDs and Ziegler chalked up 69 yards on 28 rushes.

"Our defense has been doing the job for us," LaBeau noted, "and our offense has come around. We must continue to improve. If we do, we're going to win some more games."

Falling short of the goal

On his first try in the extra period, Belleville's Ernie Paponetti (30) picked up five yards, but the Tiger running back and his teammates were stopped by a determined Romulus defense that helped seal the Eagles' first win on their home turf in over three seasons. Story is on Page C-1.

right sideline. Irwin fired a bullet and Taig caught it over his shoulder at the 10-yard line. He picked up four more yards before being dropped on the six.

The Rockets had the opportunity they needed to enter the lockerroom in a good frame of mind. But Franklin's defense had other ideas. They broke up passes to Cass Simpson and Gary Stersic and thwarted a fourth down play as time expired in the first half.

"It's the best game we have played on defense this season," said Vigna. "We had prepared for Tony Boles not to play but we also had prepared in case he played. We contained the run and put pressure on Irwin."

The second half was a defensive clinic as both sides jockeyed back and forth for field position. The Patriot defense, led by defensive end Tim McGillivray (Sr., 6-2, 187), kept Glenn bottled up for most of the half.

Everytime Irwin wanted to pass, Franklin had someone there to prevent it. When Glenn went to the run, the Patriots always seemed to have the right antidote.

"They were good and we knew it going in," said Gordon. "I really don't want to take anything away from Franklin, but we didn't test them either."

Glenn's defense was equally as tough as the Patriots had been. Led by Mike Leck (Sr., 5-10, 195) and Ron Keast (Jr., 5-6, 150), they forced Drabicki, Karcher, and Norrid to scramble for their lives and help give the Rockets' offense a chance to regroup and stay in the game.

"Our defense played well enough to win," said Gordon. "We knew they were explosive with Drabicki and the passing game. Our offense was a complete and utter disappointment."

However, Drabicki was able to hold the Rockets at bay with key first down passes to his favorite receiver Dave DeMay (Sr., 6-0, 148), who caught 7 passes for 86 yards. He now has caught 18 passes on the season.

But it was DeMay's interception with 1:02 left in the game that ended Glenn's hopes of victory and dashed their dreams of a perfect season.

Now it's back to the drawing board for the Rockets who take on powerful Redford Union on Friday at RU at 7:30 p.m.

"If we don't play better than last week," said Gordon, "we're in deep trouble."

In the JV game, the Patriots and Rockets battled to a scoreless tie as Gary Cloud and Dave Mattioli led the Rockets with stellar defensive plays.

Glenn runners open with win

It's always nice to start the season beating a natural rival.

And that's what Westland John Glenn accomplished last week in cross country as the Rockets' boys and girls' teams swept Wayne Memorial to launch the dual meet season.

The men's team defeated the Zebras by a score of 21-36, and the women completed the sweep with a 23-32 decision.

In the women's meet, returning All-Area runners Pam Eldridge, Laura Graulius, and Karen Opp finished 1, 2, and 3 in the race. Completing the Rocket scoring were sophomore Elizabeth Gorecki, and Tracey Shaw who placed 8th and 9th.

Eldridge won the race with a time of 20:52.

"It was pleasing to get the first win of the season, which will do much for the attitude of the team," noted Ed Phillips, Glenn Cross Country Coach. "The women ran well, but have a long way to go to reach their potential, I was very pleased with the establishment of a women's team at Wayne Memorial, Coach Symonds is really doing a great job with that team, and they should be competitive by the end of the season. "Our team has several key injuries that have to come around for the team to match last year's success, 15th in the State Finals. Their goal is to improve on that finish, but it will take lots of work.

In the men's race, Junior Jim Kolodziej led the runners to the finish with a time of 16:40. Rocket runners Jay Hunt was third; Kyle Szukaitis 4th, Dan Leidel 6th, Tod Lilla 7th, Frank Shelly 10, and Sam Hassan 11th.

"I was really pleased with Kolodziej's performance," said Phillips.

"Jim really worked hard this summer to better himself, and the work is paying off this season. He should be one of the best runners in the area this

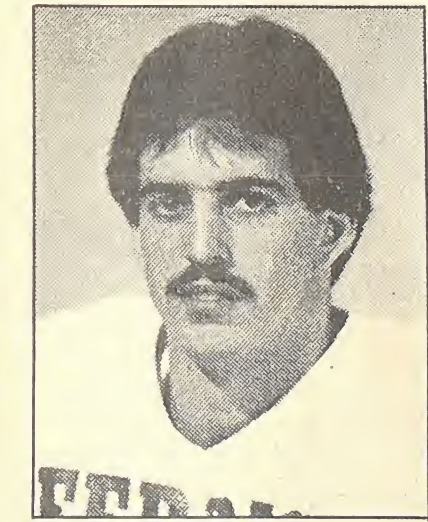

Suida has new role

Former Westland John Glenn football standout, Rob Suida, has moved from the playing surface to the sidelines at Ferris State College this season.

Suida, a student assistant coach will focus his responsibilities primarily on the Bulldogs' offensive line.

Suida threw for 535 yards and three touchdowns last year as Ferris' back-up quarterback and combined with Steve Piotraczk to set a single-game school record of 321 passing yards against Northwood.

A four-year Bulldog letter-winner, Suida arrived at Ferris State in 1979 after an all-state playing career at John Glenn.

second TD run, a three-yard run in the fourth quarter. The SAC champs got the ball when Jarvis Walker stepped in front of an errant Calvin Cross pass at the Panther 40. Nine plays later the Bulldogs were in the Rouge end zone.

Robichaud racked up 179 yards rushing with Matthew Holifield picking up 77 of those on 12 tries. Eltuan Fuqua accounted for 63 yards on 12 carries. Carreathers was on target for six of his 15 passes, good for 83 yards and two TDs. Two other passes with TD written on them were dropped.

"Our defensive secondary really stood out," said Yauck, who singled out Walker and Donald Mandell as playing an exceptional game. The defensive line was led by Price.

standing Salem receiver Craig Morton for a touchdown. That TD tied the game and sent it into overtime.

"We held them in the first overtime," said Moshimer, who added that on a fourth down field goal attempt, one referee ruled the kick good, but another signaled that the ball was wide. "That would have won the game for us right there," said Moshimer.

In the second overtime, Bentley, not taking a chance on a fumble, attempted a field goal from 27 yards out on first down. It was good, and Salem's 1984 record dropped to 1-2.

Time to shape up in Canton

The Canton Parks and Recreation Department will sponsor a 10-week session of the Men's Recreation Night program from 6:45 to 9:45 p.m. Wednesdays, starting Oct. 10.

The program, offered at the Erikson Elementary School, is open only to Canton residents and non-residents who participated last year. Main activity is basketball.

Space is limited and early registration is recommended. Call 397-1000 between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. for details.

PP&K contest set

The Canton Parks and Recreation Department will sponsor its annual Punt, Pass and Kick Contest for boys and girls ages 8 through 13 at 10 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 6 at Griffin Park (Sheldon Road side).

Each contestant will try one punt, pass and kick. Efforts will be judged on distance and accuracy, with awards given to the top two finishers in six age groups.

Registration is at 9:30 a.m. the day of the event. Call 397-1000 for details.
